Section 2: Any funds contained in the treasury will be used to satisfy outstanding debts, liabilities, and obligations of The Club. Any remaining funds shall be donated to military-oriented nonprofit organizations (charities).

Article X: Parliamentary Authority

The rules in the current edition of Robert's Rules of Order, Newly Revised govern The Club where they are applicable and where they do not conflict with the Constitution or any special rules of order The Club may adopt.

STANDING RULES

1. These Standing Rules may be changed at any Board meeting by a majority vote of those present and eligible to vote.

2. No refunds will be given for function reservations not cancelled by the announced deadline. These monies will be placed in the General Fund.

3 Requests for contributions received from non-profit organizations are referred to the Benevolence Committee, which may approve expenditures of $250 or less per quarter of benevolence funds. They will make recommendations for the expenditure of higher amounts to the Board at the next meeting.

4. At Board meetings of The Club, the agenda shall consist of reading, correction, and approval of the minutes, treasurer's report, Board member reports, standing committee reports, special committee reports, Advisor reports/comments, unfinished business, new business, and announcements.

5. Any club member may attend a Board meeting. However, non-board members may not introduce any items of business without prior approval of the President, nor will they have a vote.

6. In the event of inclement weather, all club activities will be postponed or cancelled. However, the deadline for newsletter submissions will remain as designated by the newsletter editor.

7. Club publications are intended for the personal use of The Club members and are not to be used for soliciting, commercial, or political purposes and should be stated as such in the front of the directory.

8. The President shall appoint the following chairs:

- a) Benevolence. The Benevolence committee coordinates fundraisers for The Club, including bake sales, silent auctions, Tree of Honor, etc. The committee also works with the Inpatient Wounded Family Liaison Office and The Warrior Family Coordination Cell to coordinate events for the wounded and their families. Annually, The Benevolence Committee recommends an operating budget to the Board. The Benevolence Committee is responsible for the General Benevolence, the Wounded Warrior Fund, the Annual Staff Wish List Program, 7 West, the Pediatric Stuffed Animal Program and Patient Visit Days (a.k.a. Cookie Fridays).
- b) Books 4 Kids. Books 4 Kids works with the Pediatrics Department to stock the bookshelves. The Chair will work to acquire new and gently used books and will also solicit other items as needed.
- c) Mary Jane Sanford Project Committee members attend ongoing planning meetings for the art show and prepare reports for the Oakleaf board. The Oakleaf Club provides assistance on the day of the art show. The Mary Jane Sanford Fund, when monies are available, is a resource to support the expenses of the art show as well as other benevolent Walter Reed National Military Medical Center (WRNMMC) staff and patient activities.
- d) Tree House. The Tree House coordinator will plan monthly playgroup events.
- e) Fisher House. The Fisher House Chair will coordinate monthly meals for Fisher House and will maintain a relationship with the Fisher House manager to fulfill other requests, such as restocking pantry and purchasing needed items as approved by the Board. For this purpose, Fisher House duties may be divided into Hospitality and Meal Donations.
- f) Sunshine. Will coordinate outreach for families with new babies, a deployed service member, a death in the family and medical situations, such as surgeries, major illness, etc.
 1. Funds permitting, outreach to families with new babies will be equitable across families and include a small gift on behalf of The Club.
 2. Will provide support and services to Oakleaf family members whose spouses are deployed for a period of 90 days or more from the Greater D.C. Area. Will assign a Deployment Buddy or volunteer member to provide consistent support throughout the deployment. Support may come in the form of communication with Command Ombudsmen. All services rendered by The Club to deployed spouses' family members are allocated by need and funds available through a board vote on a quarterly basis.
 3. Will provide appropriate condolences for members or past members who pass away.
 4. Will provide outreach to families with a medical situation.
- g) New Member Liaison. Will communicate with interns about Oakleaf events and act as primary coordination for intern/resident orientation events with WRNMMC and the Naval Postgraduate Dental School. The liaison will also work with the Board to plan a spring panel for graduating interns and assist with coordination of intern/resident orientation events.
